Self-Examination Never Hurts

Years ago a boy walked into a drugstore and asked if he could use the telephone.

Receiving permission, he took the receiver and said, "Operator, give me number 604.

Prayer Requests

Glenda Cantrell is having cataracts removed this week and next.

Judy Boles' husband, Glen, remains in Cookeville hospital, making slow improvement.

Barbara Carwile will be undergoing more tests before her treatment begins.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

II Corinthians 1:3-4

Hello, Dr. Anderson, do you want to hire a boy to cut the grass, milk the cow and run errands for you? Oh, you already have a boy. Dr. Anderson, are you completely satisfied with the boy you have? OK then. Bye, Doctor."

As the boy thanked the druggist and started out the door, the druggist called him, "Just a minute son, if you are looking for work, I could use a boy like you."

"Thank you sir," replied the boy, "but I already have a job."

"Didn't I just hear you trying to get a job with Dr. Anderson?"

"No sir," said the boy. "I'm the boy working for Dr. Anderson, and I was just checking up on myself."

This points out the great need for self-examination. Perhaps Paul's exhortation would encourage us: "Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Philippians 2:12).
